Agreement Terms

1. Purpose and Permitted Use

Each party shall use Confidential Information solely to evaluate a possible commercial integration between the parties and for no other purpose.

2. Confidential Information

Confidential Information means non-public technical, business, product, customer, security, financial, and operational information disclosed in writing, orally, visually, or by inspection and identified as confidential or reasonably understood to be confidential.

3. Exclusions

Confidential Information does not include information that is publicly available without breach, already known without restriction, independently developed without use of Confidential Information, or lawfully received from a third party.

4. Standard of Care

Each party shall protect Confidential Information using at least reasonable care and no less than the care it uses for its own similar information.

5. Return or Destruction

Upon written request, each party shall promptly return or destroy all Confidential Information, except archival copies kept for legal, compliance, or automatic backup purposes.

6. Survival

Confidentiality obligations survive for three years after termination, except trade secrets remain protected for so long as they remain trade secrets under applicable law.

7. Governing Law

This Agreement is governed by the laws of Ontario, Canada.

8. Dispute Resolution

The parties shall first attempt good-faith executive negotiation, then mediation in Toronto before commencing litigation.

9. No Legal Advice

The parties acknowledge that this document is a private commercial agreement and should be reviewed by qualified counsel.
